President's Message

I was recently walking through the redwoods in the Avenue of the Giants up north when I looked skyward at the new bright green tips of the redwood branches against the bright blue of the sky and thought what a beautiful color combination to use in a quilt. I sometimes find myself looking at the sun streaming through railings and wondering how I can translate the pattern I see into a quilt. It seems that this hobby, this craft, this therapy, is always with me even though I have no fabric in hand. There is something about choosing the fabric, sewing the quilt, and seeing the final vision upon completion that fills the need to be creative.

This guild has so many creative members. You are an inspiration to me. I see so much dedication in all of you which makes this such a wonderful guild to belong to. It is this creative spirit and dedication that makes my job of being President so much easier. For this I thank you.

Linda Hooper

Linda Hooper started sewing when she was five years old. She was fascinated with the sewing machine that her mother never used, and when shown how it worked, started out making bean bags for herself and her sisters. It didn't take long for her to use her talents sewing her own clothes. Even though she didn't understand how they were made, Linda experienced an early love for quilts. Her first attempt at age 19 was a quilt made of a gauzy material. The results were disastrous; the quilt literally disintegrated.

When her kids were in kindergarten, the students were given an assignment to bring in a favorite piece of fabric from an old blanket or piece of clothing. The teacher asked the group if anybody knew of someone who might be able to make a quilt out of the pieces. Of course, her kids volunteered Linda! It was another disaster because she used satin for sashing and the whole thing ended up being a mass of wrinkles (but no doubt beloved by the beneficiary).

In 2003 she discovered that quilting classes were being offered at Village Sewing Center. Never one to approach any task half-heartedly, Linda showed up for her first class planning to make a "rails and fence" quilt from sparkly Asian fabric ... with four times the amount of fabric required for a queen size quilt. For her second project, she took a class in free motion quilting (FMQ). When told at the class that "you need 400 hours of practice" to be proficient with FMQ, she decided to make a king size quilt to practice on. The quilt was so large, she had to have everyone in the class help her with the basting. Well ... Linda entered that practice quilt at the Sonoma County Fair and won "Best of Class," the "Dory Whipple Award" for machine quilting, and "Best Use of Color" from the Moonlight Quilters of Sonoma County. As an award winner, she was invited to SRQG Founder's Day for lunch ... she had never considered joining a guild, but was hooked at her first meeting in 2005.

Amish quilts provided Linda with her first inspiration. She was drawn to the whole idea of the quilt: how it brings comfort; is a beautiful object of art; and with the use of bits of old clothing, becomes a memorial to family members long gone ... "quilting preserves our lives."

Linda enjoys all quilting methods, but piecing is her favorite. She's done some appliqué, but is not fond of fusing. She usually makes her own patterns rather than follow someone else's. Linda likes to let the fabric "tell" her what needs to be done with it. She wants the quilt to speak to her, and sometimes has used the seam ripper as much as the sewing machine. Linda always has 6 or more projects going on at a time, but ever one to finish what she starts, has only 4 or 5 UFO's and is committed to getting them done at some point.

She loves earth tones, gravitating particularly to red, green and gold. Every year she makes donation quilts; she has no problem giving the quilts away if they aren't in her favorite colors, but if they are, she ends up with "separation anxiety" and has to live with them for three or four weeks before she parts with them. So far she has kept 20 of the 40 or 50 quilts she has made over the years.

Like wine and good food can bring disparate people together, Linda appreciates the common bond of quilting that has brought us all together at the guild; people who might never otherwise have met or been friends. She loves all the noise and chatter during guild meetings, how we feed off and inspire each other and bounce ideas back and forth.

Starting out with hospitality in 2005, Linda was Vice President in 2007 and 2008, and President in 2009. Honorary Life Membership was bestowed in 2010. She has worked with Programs Elect and Programs; Linda has done wonders with our website, and is our videographer. Earlier this month she guided us through her second Mystery Quilt.

We're fortunate and grateful that Linda Hooper is so committed to the Santa Rosa Quilt Guild.

Makes SCENTS to me!

Many of our members suffer from allergies or sensitivities to perfumes and scented lotions, etc. We respectfully ask that you leave the scents at home on Guild meeting days.

Sonoma County Fair

The Sonoma County Fair runs from July 24th to August 10th, and is closed on Mondays. Each day there are demonstrations of weaving, needlework and quilting. We will have two – three hour shifts per day with two people working each shift. We will be demonstrating either machine or hand quilting or piecing. Machines will be provided or you can bring your own. Baby quilt kits will be provided if you don't want to work on your own project. This is a fun way to meet new people and share our love of quilting with the public. The hall is beautifully filled with all manner of crafts with our quilts hanging from the rafters and walls. You will receive a free pass to the fair for each shift you work. I will have the sign-up sheets with me at all the meetings between now and the end of the fair.

Thank you

 Pam McVey

An Invitation

The Mt. Tam Quilt Guild would like to extend an invitation to our meeting on Tuesday, July 8th at 6:30PM with our annual "Yard Sale and Ice Cream Social." Our members will have tables set up with patterns, fabrics, notions, books and all other kinds of quilting items for all to look at and buy. Last year we had 11 sellers and this year we already have a table reserved for a member who is bringing a variety of new fabrics including the new American-made brand from Clothworks. We are not charging a guest fee at this meeting as we usually charge a $5.00 guest fee. In addition to the yard sale bargains, we are having our "Ice Cream Social." This includes ice cream and a variety of toppings at no charge! We ask that shoppers bring bills no larger than $20.00. It's best to bring fives and ones for easier making change. It will held at Aldersgate Methodist Church 1 Welbrock Heights, San Rafael, Ca. 94903. (It is actually in Terra Linda up behind Kaiser Hospital).

Hope to see some of you there!

Hospitality Notes

The Quiltathon was fantastic! It was filled with laughter, love andpizza. Thank you Pam Beebe and Anne Dondero for the opportunity to "work" for the community and have fun the whole time. And thank you Joey's Pizza for giving us a great discount on the good pizza. If you go to this pizza joint, thank them. This is the second year they have provided pizza for us.

And while I am at it, thank you ladies for hearing my call for napkins. We've got napkins! And thank you all for your donations to hospitality. The good food and drinks makes fun meetings even that much more pleasant.

Boutique & Raffle

Thank you everyone who helped with the Boutique and Raffle during the past few meetings. You all did a great job. It was a nice surprise having 40 thread catchers returned, helping us have plenty for the quilt show. There are still lots in the closet yet to be sewn to replace what is hopefully sold. Numerous other items were brought in to sell or ideas to add to our inventory. That's always a great help. We've had extra days off this year with all the extra activities, giving the committee a nice reprieve. Again, thank you for your support and have a great summer.

A Note of Appreciation

Thank you so much for all the cards and expressions of concern the past month or more. As sad as it is to lose a younger brother, we got to enjoy an extra three years with him after suffering congestive heart failure. Modern technology is amazing but it can only do so much. Dwight is living proof of that. We now call him the 25/million dollar bionic man he has so much metal in him and still getting around pretty good, always with a good attitude. It amazes him how many ask about him at every meeting. He sometimes accuses me of making it up. All the cards received recently and in the past prove what a caring wonderful group of friends we ALL have in the SRQG.

We are both grateful to be a part of such a wonderful organization, as Dwight isn't a member. Thank you all for making is so.

Barbara Youngblood Heart Made Quilts

Santa Rosa Quilt Guild's meeting on Thursday, June 5th, 2014 featured Affiliate Barbara Youngblood of 'Heart Made Quilts'. Barbara took the stage for 15 minutes and shared with us the business of quilting with her Gammill longarm. Barbara began quilting in 1976. She started her business in 2002 and introduced the Longarm in 2009. She notes that she has nine grandchildren - which is a prompt she uses to remind herself when she began quilting with the longarm. She said her quilts are sturdy, attractive, and inexpensive, referring to herself as "The Grandma Quilter". While on stage, she showed dozens of work sample patterns approximately the size of a placemat. Each one featured one of her many patterns, complete with back and batting. Barbara carries batting for her customers and sells it for a better price than many fabric stores. Barbara also displayed many of the quilts she has worked on over the years, delighting the group with each show-and-tell featuring her quilting. They were lovely and it was wonderful to see her heart-made work. Thank you, Barbara, for using your affiliate benefit to make a great presentation acquainting the guild with your business.

Diane Bare The Treasured Thread

Santa Rosa Quilt Guild is proud to announce that Affiliate Diane Bare, owner operator of 'The Treasured Thread', will be presenting her longarm quilting business Thursday, July 3rd, 2014 at the guild business meeting.

Diane began sewing at the age of 7 years and has loved sewing ever since. In college she majored in Interior Design. Her sewing skills and creativity naturally fit this degree. Currently, Diane works full-time in San Francisco spending 15 hours a week commuting to and fro. She longs to be home and self-employed - thus began her longarm business two and a half years ago. She noticed as she went from quilt shop to quilt shop inquiring about the business of quilting how kind, friendly, and caring quilters are. She observed that they share information willingly and generously, noting that quilters are great people.

Her quilts have been shown as far away as Sisters, Oregon and as close as the Moonlight Quilters of Sonoma County's 'Wine Country Quilt Show.' She stocks batting for customer convenience and has an array of treasured threads. Diane primarily quilts with patterns but does some custom work from block to block on occasion. Her turn-around time is two weeks but has finished quilts in as little as one day. Diane also has a 6 needle embroidery machine to make custom labels. I think this makes 'The Treasured Thread' a cut above.

Diane will have quilting patterns and work samples available for viewing on July 3rd. You won't want to miss this affiliate presentation. Let's welcome Diane Bare of 'The Treasured Thread' with open arms when she takes the dais on July 3rd.

Block of the Month

For June we are taking a bit of a break from our adventure in paper piecing.

"Patriot Heart" is an easily pieced 12" block consisting of half square triangles, squares and rectangles in red, white and blue.

Blocks are appropriately due July 3rd, and all the blocks will be given to Lavella Cassinelli in support of her group that makes quilts for hospitalized veterans. We look forward to a great response for the June block of the month; they will all be used for a very worthy cause.
