January - February 2015 • Vol. 39 • No. 1

President's Message

At the beginning of the New Year, I believe it is expected that we are to look into the future and make all kinds of resolutions of things that we are going to try and change, but I have decided that I want to look to the past year and reflect on what we as a guild have accomplished. You collectively have created 1527 Community Quilts, 517 of which went to the Veterans. You have donated 24 fidget aprons, 650 knitted birds nests that help the Bird Rescue Center, and countless knitted and crocheted hats and scarves that are donated to schools and Veterans. We have donated $300.00 to the Haitian School of Blessings which was matched by Superior Threads so that this organization that is helping women become self sufficient has an abundance of thread to help them on their way. You have donated 500 pounds of food to the Redwood Empire Food Bank and over $400 to the Drug Abuse Alternatives Center. I hope you are as proud of your accomplishments as I am....these are contributions individuals have made that are all wrapped up into the name "Santa Rosa Quilt Guild."

I was thinking about our guild and how it resembles a living and breathing quilt. You have the accent fabrics, the ones that stand out and shine. But you also need the background fabrics, the more quiet ones that hold it all together. There are medium colored fabrics that get their definition from their neighbors... sometimes they are light and sometimes they are dark. And just like all of you, our place in the living breathing quilt ebbs and flows with our interests. But it takes all of us, all of our talents and interests, and commitments to make our human quilt what it is.

Take time to reflect and think about how truly special this is.

Program and Workshop February 2015

MERRILL-LEE WEST

PROGRAM FEBRUARY 19~ "K.I.S.S. QUILTING"

WORKSHOP FEBRUARY 20~"BARGELLO HEART"

Merrill-Lee West will be here February 19th and 20th. Program on the 19th: K.I.S.S. Quilting. Workshop on the 20th: Bargello Heart. We need to fill this Workshop. The Bargello Heart is new to me (given my seven years with the guild) and I am excited about it. Hearts are almost always appropriate, I leave mine out all year. Please join us, the class is approximately half full as of today.

Good news for those of you taking the March Workshop, the "New Yorker hand-bag," as ten more purse patterns have arrived. They will be available for purchase for those who sign-up for the workshop. Just a note: the patterns are a separate purchase from the workshop registration. Please make checks payable to the teacher, Pozzles. This workshop is fast approaching, so please consider being a part of a wonderful program and workshop. We learn so much and have a great time building relationships at these SRQG functions. The cost is $40.00 per workshop, held the third Friday of most months at the Luther Burbank Art and Garden Center at 2050 Yulupa Ave. If you have any question please feel free to write or call me.

Programs and Workshops

On Programs and Workshops for 2015:

Santa Rosa Quilt Guild sponsors approximately 10 programs and workshops each year. This year there are nine. The program involves a guest speaker for Show and Tell for about an hour on the third Thursday of each month. We call this the 'Speaker Meeting.' The workshop takes place the next day, Friday.

The guest speaker takes the dais immediately after the President greets the membership. The workshops are held at the Luther Burbank Art and Garden Center, 2050 Yulupa Avenue, and begin promptly at 9:00am, finishing at 3:30pm. Workshops are $40.00. Checks should be made payable to: SRQG. If paying with cash please see Rhonda Denny for a cash receipt. Your check or cash receipt holds your seat for the workshop.

Before the workshop each student will be sent an email with important information, such as supply lists and homework to be completed before the workshop, if any. Two students will be asked to help set up and two others to help take down. Additionally, specific students will be asked to transfer ironing boards from the Scottish Rite Center to the LBA&GC. Keep in mind, this is a general overview. For specific questions, please see Rhonda Denny - Programs and Workshops Chairperson.

Library News

A very happy New Year to all!

Many of us need/want a template, ruler, or stencil for a quilt project, use it, then “store” it. Now we can place those items in a big box in our library to share with others. These items can be checked out and returned for the next person to borrow. Come paw through our collection and be inspired to create!

The following is a list of the books that came into our possession since our last newsletter. For images of the covers and more detailed descriptions of the items, just click on LIBRARY on our website www.santarosaquiltguild.org. Linda Hooper has written easy-to-understand directions about how to utilize the library site. To locate her instructions, click on the underlined “here” in the second paragraph at the top of the library page. Let me know if you would like guidance with the site and we’ll sit down at the Library’s laptop computer after a meeting. A hint: if you are looking for an author, remember to type in the last name first, and if you are searching for a book title, type in the first “important” word leaving the a, an, and the’s ‘til the end.

MACHINE EMBROIDERED FLOWERS, WOODLANDS AND LANDSCAPES by Alison Holt

MACHINE EMBROIDERED SEASCAPES by Alison Holt

JOURNEY TO JERICHO by Kaye England

UNCOVERINGS 2014 – VOLUME 35 OF THE RESEARCH PAPERS OF THE AMERICAN QUILT STUDY GROUP (free with our annual dues)

“Block” by Jenny Doan of the Missouri Star Quilt Company – Volume 1; Issues 1, 2, and 3 (Winter, Spring, and Summer) – a magazine subscription donated by Jan Andrews (I will be treating these publications like books and filing them under “Scraps” in our library cabinets as they make such good use of pre-cut fabrics, such as Jelly Rolls, Layer Cakes, and Charm Packs, or of course, you can choose your own fabric combinations)

THE QUILT SHOW by Alex Anderson and Ricky Tims – Seasons 13 and 14 – my thanks to Marilyn Altenbach, who is a Quilt Show member, for helping me obtain these DVDs!

Be sure to let me know if you find an item that our library needs!

MINIATURE QUILTS
JAPANESE magazines
QUILTMANIA (European)

Wearing your nametag is a huge help to everyone. This is an excellent way for us to get to know each other.

Check out as many of our more than 3,000 books, DVDs, and CDs, plus magazines, as you wish ~~ just remember to return them to the very next meeting, pretty please, as there are so many members in the guild who also wish to use the items.

Our library needs many, many volunteers. You do not need to formally sign-up to help – we’ll take whatever time you can spare before or after any meeting. If you do not like the job you are given, don’t be shy – let us know what you would rather do. I can never thank everyone enough for their assistance and support with making our library the best in the entire world!

Makes SCENTS to me!

Many of our members suffer from allergies or sensitivities to perfumes and scented lotions, etc. We respectfully ask that you leave the scents at home on Guild meeting days.

Thank you!

Block of the Month

Our second scrap block of the year is "Diagonal Times 2." Made from one 5" square and two 2-1/2" squares, you should use dark to medium "jewel tone" fabric for the main part of the block, light beige for the corners.

This simple block is very versatile and can be laid out in a great variety of patterns. I look forward to enticing you with some of my favorite block designs, and hope you enjoy creating these scrappy blocks.

Cloverdale Citrus Fair

Don't forget to send in your entry forms to the Cloverdale Citrus Fair by 5pm, Friday, January 23rd. You can download the exhibit book and entry forms from the website (cloverdalecitrusfair.org).

The address of the fair office is on the form. Exhibits must be delivered to the fair on Saturday, January 31st from 10 am to 5 pm. Pickup dates are Monday, February 16th or Tuesday, February 17th from 5 pm to 7 pm. Two of our members, who live in Cloverdale, have graciously offered to deliver quilts to the fair, so you must bring them to the January 15th meeting. The quilts are handled and displayed very well.

The fair is a great place to spend Presidents' Day Weekend, February 13th through 16th.

 Pam McVey

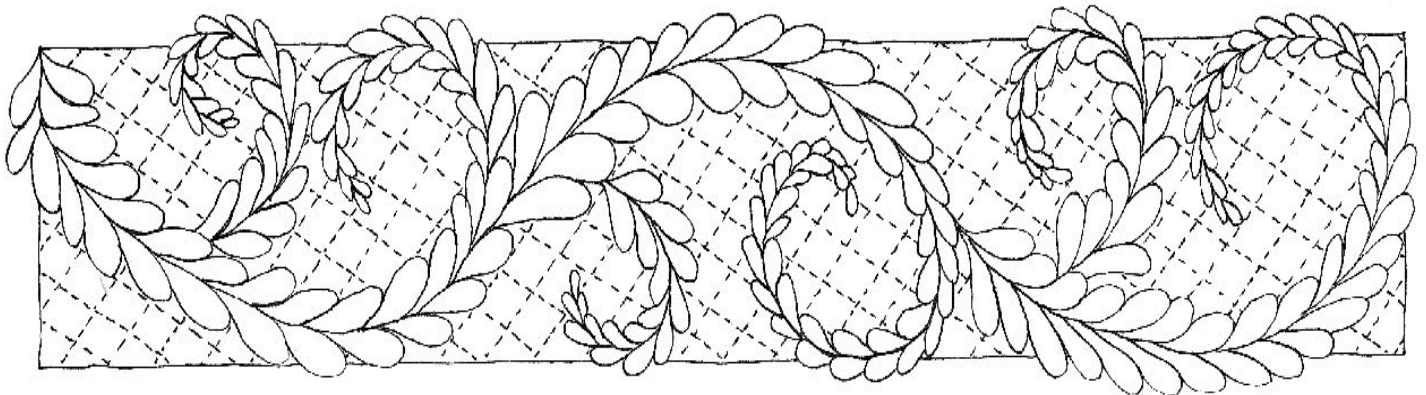

Sew-A-Row

Happy New Year! It's a new year, so that means new Sew-a-Rows and Medallions. The Starters are due at the January 15th meeting. (A "starter" is the center of a medallion or row for a sew-a-row.)

The Sew-a-Rows and Medallions will be available for sign-ups at the February 5th meeting! Please drop by the Sew-a-Row booth and sign up to add a row or border. If you sign up to do the first row or border, please leave the packet at the booth until you leave for the day so others will be able to sign up for that packet also.

Questions? Just see me. Thank you everyone for participating!

Community Quilts

Our members are a very generous group of quilters. In 2014 we donated 1527 quilts to deserving community members. Thank you to each of you who donated your time, talents, and fabric. Our recipients appreciate you! The Community Quilts project began in 1984 when guild members made 57 baby quilts and donated them to Community Hospital (now Sutter). During the past 31 years of giving, our guild donated a total of 18,836 quilts to people in need of comfort and support.

2015 brings new faces and energy to our committee. Nancy Stedman and Laura Barrett will coordinate and oversee 5th Thursday Retreats and Quiltathons. Nancy is also storing batting. Susan Hazlewood will sort and store completed quilts and deliver them to our recipients. Marlene Sullivan will collect doll quilts throughout the year and deliver them during the holidays. Janet Tonkin will store flannel and may be asking for help with washing. Lavella Cassinelli and her mini-group will continue to make and deliver quilts to local veterans. Pam is continuing in her role as Queen of Production. Anne will continue to manage our budget, attend board meetings, etc.

January 29th Fifth Thursday Retreat:

9 am – 3 pm at the Luther Burbank Art & Garden Center, 2050 Yulupa Avenue (south of Hoen Ave.)

This will be a relaxed day. Bring your lunch if you'd like, enjoy visiting with other members, and come and go as you please. You may work on your own projects and/or donation quilts. We will have quilts to work on in various phases of completion.

~ If you'd like to quilt, bring your machine with a walking foot or free-motion foot.

~ Hand-sewers, please bring your favorite scissors, needles, and thimble.

February 5th is our first Quiltathon of the year:

Plan to join us for a fun day of visiting and working together on quilts for our community. Look for an email with more details.

Boutique and Raffle

Not only do we have the best guild around, but the best boutique and raffle thanks to all our wonderful members. 2014 proved to be a stellar year for the Boutique and Raffle. The November Treasurer's report showed we brought in $4,400 for the year to date. With only one meeting in December, the $5,000 mark did not see plausible. Guess what? We had a record selling of $606 for that meeting! Easy math $5006 for our best year ever. All of the help, donations and participation made this all possible.

We enjoy and appreciate all the positive feedback, ideas, and donations that members bring us, and hopefully that continues throughout 2015 and we will have another very productive and fun-filled year.

We do hope that everyone had a joyous Christmas and a great New Year. We look forward to another terrific year with the greatest guild members.

COMMUNITY QUILT SIZES

If you are making donation quilts on your own, these are the approximate sizes most needed:

32" x 40" Baby Quilts	For Sutter & Memorial NICUs, Public Health nursing, & teen moms. We provide kits for making the tops, or you may use your own fabrics.
40" x 60"	For Valley of the Moon and other organizations serving children in need. Please use bright colors for young children or fabrics that will appeal to teenagers.
50" x 65"	For 18 year olds aging out of the Foster Care system.
40" x 60"	Lap quilts for adults. Given to Secret Santa, deserving seniors in local convalescent hospitals, & others.
Doll Quilts	For little girls & boys. We collect them throughout the year and donate during the holidays.

Thank you to all who are involved with this important outreach project!

Sunshine

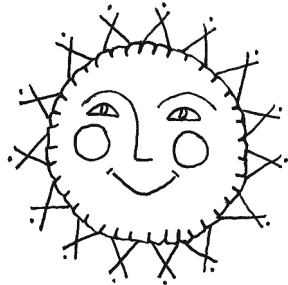

It was an honor to serve this guild as Ms. Sunshine in 2014 and I look forward to serving you again as Ms. Sunshine in 2015.

The genuine care and concern of this guild never ceases to amaze me. A total of 37 cards were requested to be sent out in the year 2014. The bulk of the cards were Speedy Recovery/Get Well with a handful of Missing You/Thinking of You, Sympathy and Memorial notification. These were sent to current members, as well as to those who are unable to continue their membership in the last two years, but still maintain friendships with guild members.

I have received nice feedback from card recipients letting me know that your care and concern does make a difference. If you know of any member that could benefit from a card, PLEASE don't hesitate to e-mail, call or catch me at a guild meeting.

Thank you for your donated Get Well, Thinking of You and Blank cards. I was once again able to come in under my budget without the need to purchase cards and only postage for the year. Due to the overwhelming card donations, I am not in need of any more at this time.

Opportunity Quilt Corner

Welcome to the New Year guild members. It's 2015 and what does that mean for our Opportunity Quilt? Well, April 2nd will be the drawing for the winner of our Opportunity Quilt, so if you haven't bought or sold tickets, this is your chance to enter your purchased ticket for a possible win! Imagine your smile when your name is called!

Once we have a happy winner - it will be the unveiling of the 2016 Opportunity Quilt, and I hear it is spectacular.

Our goal for 2015 is to reach $4000, we are so close - I can feel the energy behind it. Remember, an old Disney friend, Jiminy Cricket, in his song, "When You Wish Upon a Star"? Think of this verse when you purchase tickets. "When you wish upon a star, Makes no difference who you are, Anything your heart desires, will come to you,"

Dream big ladies!

2015 Wine Country Quilts Show Entries

Happy New Year everyone!

You have one month to get your quilt show entries in before the February 6th deadline date to get the $5 entry fee waived. All entries must have both the entry form and a photo of the quilt top including borders with accurate measurements by this date. There are entry instructions on the webpage at <http://www.mqsc.org/annual-quilt-show/quilt-show-entry-form/>. Between February 7th and April 4th we will continue to take entries but there is a $5 entry fee per person.

If you take your own photos, please use adequate light or flash, so that the photo is a good to excellent representation of your project. We need color accuracy in order to arrange them correctly.

Trina Jahnsen, Quilt Show Entry Coordinator
Joanne Thomas, Quilt Show Entry Photographer

Thank You From DAAC Perinatal Program

A thank you from Center Point DAAC Perinatal Program Coordinator, Kathy Peters

On behalf of the staff and participants of the First Steps Perinatal Program, we want to thank you for your generous donations that support women in treatment. The Perinatal program has been operating in Sonoma County over 40 years offering pregnant and parenting women the opportunity to recover from substance abuse. Your contributions to the Center Point DAAC 'store' provide basic necessities for their children, as well as give them extra motivation to attend treatment as they earn "DAAC Dollars."

Thank you.

Special Edition

December 4, 2014

Those of you who know me also know that I have a real soft spot for our elders. If you had ridden along with me to deliver a few quilts and some fidget aprons this week, you might see where my passion lies.

It was a rainy Tuesday in Petaluma. Sam's Residential Care Home (none of these names are real, but the story is true) is showing its age on the outside. The grass needs to be cut, it could use a paint job, and water was pouring through the rusted gutters. But when Sam opened the door, it was the same, clean, quiet place that I remember from visiting a couple years ago. Greta sat in the same chair paying her bills; she even remembered me ... I think ... The house calico cat was sprawled out on the couch beside her and accepted my overtures of a scratch under the chin. Sam called out for Tom who was in his room reading. He wheeled himself out and immediately recognized me. Two residents I did not know were sitting in the living area watching TV ... or sleeping ...

As the past Long Term Care Ombudsman for the facility, I turned to Sam for help resolving some challenging cases, including Tom's. His house is always clean, and you can tell there is love ... not just from Sam, but among the folks who live there.

We gathered in the living area and Sam made all the introductions. My original thought was that Sam would give the quilts out closer to Christmas, but he gave me the privilege of handing them out while we were all there. Anne Dondero gave me 20 quilts to pass out to seniors, and there was an amazing variety of styles, themes and fabrics.

Greta, who loves antiques, was so well suited for the jewel toned velvet quilt with the heavy brown back. Tom smiled, said he would like one that wouldn't be too heavy on his legs ... there was the perfect flannel "man's" quilt for him. This was the first time I met Mary, but she was wearing pink and has one of those pink complexions, so I gave her a bright, flowery, springy quilt. She draped it over her walker and her entire focus centered on the quilt as her fingers persistently explored all the textures.

Then there is Doris – she wouldn't look at me, very shy and quiet, seeming to have no expectations in life, wasn't sure why she should be included. Sam quickly let me know that Doris' hearing was very poor. The only way she could hear is if you spoke directly into her left ear. As I handed her the well quilted, small brown and white quilt with two lions in the center, she let me place it in her hands and she stared at it. I leaned over to her left ear and spoke loudly, "Merry Christmas!" Not certain why anyone would just give her anything, she asked "How much will it cost?" I said "Nothing." She held onto it tightly and said, "No one has ever given me anything like this." As she held tight to the quilt, she stared at it and then at me. She smiled and quietly said, "Merry Christmas." As I said goodbye to the group, my last look was that of Doris holding onto this little brown quilt as if it were her most cherished treasure.

I delivered three Fidget Aprons to Petaluma Nursing Home a few weeks ago. The administrator emailed me with a request from Anne, one of her nurses, who is raising a five-year old daughter who has autism. After seeing the results of the fidget aprons with her residents who experience severe memory loss, Anne knew that would be a perfect fit for her daughter as well. I made the request to the guild, and Lorna Fiori presented me with a great burgundy Fidget with lots of Minkie and a blue teddy bear hidden in a bee washing mitt sewn onto the apron. Anne was like a little kid when I handed it to her. She checked out all the zippers and velcro and pockets, rings and textures, looked up at me and said, "No matter what I get her for Christmas, this will be her very favorite." Because of her autism, Anne's daughter chews everything and reaches out for anything textural. Anne is so grateful to have something to offer her that will keep her engaged.

I think we tend to support Community Quilts by faith of a sort, faith that the quilts will have a positive impact on the recipient's life, but we seldom have the opportunity to know who that is or how they react.

I consider myself to be very blessed to have the direct contact with the people who receive our quilts; to look in their eyes and see on their face how incredibly important it is that we do the loving work that we do.
